

Lead the Way

Art Group Volunteer Role Description

What does the group do?

The group meets once a week, on a Thursday, 10-12 at Lower Valley Day Services, Rastrick.

The group is open to all abilities and is fully accessible.

The group create various artwork during the sessions and then take it home.

What is the role?

As a volunteer you will support people attending the group with whatever artwork they are making at the session, along with the day to day running of the group.

What kind of volunteer are we looking for?

- Someone who is friendly
- Someone who is patient
- Someone who enjoys working with a group of people
- Someone who has a general interest in making things/art

- Someone who is confident working with people who have varying abilities and needs. All people attending, who have additional needs, come with their own support staff.
- Someone who likes to have fun!

How do you become a volunteer?

Please ring Lead the Way on 0300 012 0416.

Arrangements will be made for someone to meet with you and complete a DBS check and a volunteer application form.

How will you be supported?

You will be supported at the group by a member of staff from Lead the Way.

Support such as supervision will be carried out by the line manager.

Expenses

All your travel expenses to and from the group will be covered by Lead the Way on production of a receipt, bus ticket etc.
